Examination for Registration as a Professional Forester or Certified Rangeland Manager

FRIDAY, April 15, 2011 - 8:00 A.M.

Examinations will likely be given in Arcata, Redding, Rocklin, and Riverside dependent upon demand and availability of testing facilities.

DEADLINE FOR NEW APPLICATION FILING: February 11, 2011

SCOPE OF THE RPF EXAMINATION

Pursuant to 14 CCR §1640.3, the examination will test the applicant's understanding of forest economics, forest protection, silviculture, forest management, forest resources use, dendrology, forest ecology, forest mensuration, forest policy, and forest administration.

INFORMATION ON THE CRM EXAMINATION

The California-Pacific Section of the Society for Range Management (Cal-Pac SRM) administers the program for State Certification as a Rangeland Manager in partnership with the Professional Foresters Registration Program. The Cal-Pac SRM Panel on Certification reviews the qualifications of applicants and provides for examinations. Detailed information on this program may be found at:

<http://www.rangelands.org/casrm/HTML/certified.html>

EXAMINATION PROCEDURE

The RPF and CRM examinations each consist of two parts, three and a half hours in length. The first part will run from 8:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon, and the second part will run from 1:00 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

An average score of 75% is required to pass the RPF or CRM exam.

Pocket calculators and a pen with black ink will be permitted. No other materials or aids will be allowed in the examination room. Cellular phones are not permitted in the examination room.

PLEASE NOTE: The application fees for both the RPF and CRM Examinations are non-refundable. If you are uncertain of your qualifications, please contact Eric K. Huff, Executive Officer-Foresters Registration at (916)-653-8031 or eric.huff@fire.ca.gov prior to posting the fee with your application.

RPF QUALIFICATIONS

Pursuant to PRC §769, the applicant for registration as a Professional Forester must:

- (A) Be of good moral character and have a good reputation for honesty and integrity.
- (B) Furnish evidence of having completed seven years of experience in forestry work.
- (C) Successfully complete an examination as prescribed by the Board of Forestry and Fire Protection.

Possession of a Bachelor of Science degree with a Major in Forestry will be deemed equivalent to four years of experience in the actual practice of forestry work. (A bachelor's degree not in forestry plus a Master of Forestry degree will be deemed the equivalent of a B.S. on forestry.)

PLEASE NOTE: If education is to be substituted for qualifying experience, a certified transcript must be sent directly from the college or university to the Executive Officer at the address shown below.

At least three of the seven years of experience shall include having charge of forestry work, or forestry work under the supervision of a person registered, or qualified for, but exempt from, registration. Work completed prior to July 1, 1973, shall qualify if it was under the supervision of a qualified forester. The award of a Master of Forestry degree will be acceptable as evidence of one year of such qualifying experience.

Some forestry-related degrees, in addition to those specified above, will be accepted pursuant to Title 14, California Code of Regulations, §1621.4 in lieu of the required experience.

The applicant must meet the minimum qualifications as of the date when the application is submitted.
